Andrea,

If it's in the template, would you make it right? Also, there are no problems adapting this section to what actually happened.

Thank you.

Maggie,

Uri will review the three staff reports for the LRAPA rulemakings on Friday, January 31.

We received no comments on these rulemakings. The staff reports are in the Review category on SharePoint.

In the template for the staff report, the close of comment date and time are given twice on the same page. I'd like to remove one of those references.
