Colleen,

I will explain this by saying I am leaving today for three weeks of vacation and I was trying to finish a million things at work before I left. You had contacted me because I didn't send you the whole of these rules when I filed them. When I sent you the updated version, I forgot to include the newly adopted changes in 340-250-0030. So this is the actual, genuine, truly adopted version of these rules.

At least you won't have to hear from me for three weeks.
