Subject: Bundled Rules LRAPA Website Announcement

Margaret:

Attached is the web announcement we discussed on the phone that LRAPA plans to post for the public comment period of the bundled rulemaking packet.

Everything is linked except the past comments and responses. I am working on that part now.

This announcement gives a great overview of what is going on with this process.

Let me know if you see anything that needs changes or that is missing.

Thanks and look forward to working with you on this process.

I will send the stringency review letters in my next email.

Regards-
