Let's go with Wednesday, Jan. 22nd at 5:30pm for the hearing. This changes our close of comment deadline to Jan. 27. Thanks everyone!

Robbye and all:

My first choice of the dates mentioned would be January 22nd, especially if Max is available to be the presiding officer, but I am available as backup.

If it needs to be the 21st, and Max is not available, I could be the presiding officer.

The 23rd would be difficult for me. But as long as you and Max are available on that date, it should be workable.

Robbye:

January 22 or 23 at that time is preferable.

Thanks,
Max

We typically hold hearings after close of business, but this is not a requirement. Considering this is a noncontroversial and low-interest rulemaking, a hearing during the workday afternoon would be okay.
