Joe: Attached are my redlined comments and suggested edits for your consideration. I think this looks very good. The most significant comment I have is regarding the adoption of permanent rules following similar temporary rules. I believe the proper approach is to treat the new, permanent rules as if the temporary rules did not exist. You are adopting them as new rules, and repealing the temporary rules—and you are not amending the temporary rules to make them permanent. I also have added some statutory references and made other edits in the "statutory authority" and "statutes implemented" sections. Please let me know if you have any questions, or would like to discuss my suggestions further.

Subject: for your review: draft Notice of Rulemaking for art glass rule

Hi All,

The draft Notice of Rulemaking for the permanent art glass rule is ready for your review.

If possible, please make your edits and comments to the version on Sharepoint:
http://deqsps/programs/rulemaking/lq/airtoxics2016/docs/artglass2016.rulemaking.notice.docx

Please view in 'All Markup' mode in Track Changes so you can see the comments.

If you don't have access to the version on Sharepoint or it's checked out when you need it, let me know and I can email you a copy or otherwise accommodate. A copy of the Appendix A tables are attached as PDF.

We have a hard deadline to submit this at the end of the day Wednesday, so let's pull this together as best we can.

Thank you for your help!

-Joe
