Nancy,

The public comment period on your rulemaking is closed. The next step is to prepare the staff report. The blank template is on your sharepoint page in the eqc preparation folder.

You did not get any comments submitted to your comment outlook mailbox.

I downloaded the comments you received on your comment web page to an excel spreadsheet. I uploaded the spreadsheet to your sharepoint page in the eqc preparation folder. Some of the comments had attachments. Those attachments are identified as a web link on the spreadsheet. You should be able to just click on the link to open the attachments.

Let me know if you have any questions.
