Hello Rob, I am scanning in documents for site # 1171 Stanley Proto Tool and I have come across a report that was submitted to us with all of the pages in it, but for some reason now the ORIGINAL report is missing a lot of pages to it. I tired to find an electronic copy of this report, but I can not find one. The name of the report is 2003 Annual Groundwater Monitoring Report January 21, 2004 from Hahn & Associates, Incorporated. Please let me know what was accomplished with this report so that way I can keep track of this report and I will be able to recycle the old one once we get another copy that is electronic.
Thank You,
Dawn
