The staff report template that is on the SharePoint page, under the topic of EQC Preparation, contains the justification language. I also uploaded on to the same topic in SharePoint an example of a staff report from a temporary rulemaking. Let me know if you need more.

Meyer,

Can you send us the following items so we can start working on these?

1. The language that we need to fill in to justify the temporary rule – i.e. the rule language
2. A recent sample staff report for a temporary rule

Thanks so much,
Leah
