Unless there is a reason you prefer an email mailbox, I would prefer to set up a public comment page, like we do with regular rulemakings. We can send out a govdelivery and put a link on the DEQ front web page.

Subject: public comment email inbox on temporary rules

Meyer,

Can you please set up an email inbox for public comments on the temporary rule and give me access to it. The EQC decided to delay a decision on the temporary rule and we will take comments until March 30. Can you put something on our website that shows people how to comment? We will go to the April EQC meeting with the temporary rule.

Thank you!
Jill
