The meeting needs to be after the rules and RTC have been sent out for internal review, but also a few days ahead of the rules going to EQC. I think Joe is working to make that arrangement. Other meeting are happening today and tomorrow to resolve bigger issues, but I anticipate lots of questions about the details.

I agree with George that such a meeting is needed. George, when would a long meeting be useful? Next week?

Joe and all,

The proposed dates are fine, but what's lacking is the 8 hour meeting of all reviewers and the rule and response drafters to thrash out questions and issues. Perhaps I worry too much, but I just don't see this all getting approved in a couple of email exchanges; there are a lot of changes.

Subject: art glass rule: dates and deadlines

Hi All,

A couple of notes about deadlines:

The EQC will consider our proposed art glass rules on Thursday, September 29th at 9am in EQC-A. Jaclyn and George will be presenting to the Commission. Please note the new date- I incorrectly had it down as Monday in previous communications.

Here's my proposed schedule for our deadlines (as shown below in the calendar):

Thursday, September 8th: draft to Leah, Lydia, Paul, Emil and Meyer

Thursday, September 15th: send final package to EQC for their review before the meeting. And, make it public via GovDelivery and our website.

Thursday, September 29th: EQC meeting

Let me know if you feel those should be adjusted.

-Joe
