Greetings,

Glass Alchemy submitted very detailed comments on the art glass rule, and I've set up this meeting as a followup so DEQ can get more info about the approach Glass Alchemy suggested and information they have collected.

Al, this meeting is on the 10th floor of 811 SW 6th Avenue (same building as for the fiscal advisory committee meetings) but in a different conference room. If you get out of the elevators and walk straight forward you'll be heading in the right direction. If you have background data or reports that support your comment on the rule, please bring them to the meeting. (The public comment period closes Friday night, so we need to receive materials before then in order to incorporate them into the official record.)

Greg, my apologies for having the meeting on a day when you aren't able to attend. Keith, I provided a call-in number but if you're able to be at HQ that's even better.

-Joe
