Hi Joe,

I'll have them add the time and date for the end of the comment period. The other information we don't usually include on the rulemaking web page because it's in the Public Notice Packet and was in the GovDelivery notice. I can add the information if you like but it would be a departure from how we normally do things.

Let me know. Thanks.

Emil

Subject: web change request for art glass rulemaking page

Hi Emil,

The website for the art glass rulemaking says public comment closes "July 2016".
http://www.oregon.gov/deq/RulesandRegulations/Pages/2016/Rartglass2016.aspx

Can we make that more specific: "Friday, July 29th 2016 at 5 pm"?

Could we also mention the public hearing on that page? I suggest adding something like this, just below the "Submit Comment Online" section:

-Joe
