The agenda for this dry run:

Jaclyn and George will do a straight run-through of their presentation (15-20 minutes, not including questions). Attendees, please come in the role of commissioners, ready to ask softball or hardball questions either during the presentation or in the question time after. The idea is to give Jaclyn and George a simulation of the EQC meeting.

After the run-through we can break character for a debrief, to discuss what went well and brainstorm suggestions for improvement.
