The "effective date of the rule" is the date of filing, not the date of adoption, is that right?

Hello Joe,

The rules were filed on Monday, October 3. I've attached the certificate of filing.

Let me know if you have any other questions.

Hi Emil,

A question from Dave Kauth: what was the official secretary of state filing date for the permanent art glass rule?

Some of the requirement due dates are keyed to the effective date of the rule. (Dave, please jump in if I'm not phrasing the question quite the right way.)
