Subject:	fiscal advisory committee for art glass permanent rulemaking
Date:	Friday, April 29, 2016 2:18:11 PM

Greetings, Committee Members,

We now have a date for the permanent art glass rulemaking fiscal advisory committee meeting. Please mark your calendars for:

Friday, May 27th
9am – noon
DEQ Headquarters Building
Conference Room EQC-A (10th floor)
811 SW 6th Avenue
Portland OR 97204

Depending how it goes, we may not need all three hours.

This meeting will be focused on the somewhat wonky task of reviewing a DEQ estimate of the fiscal impact of the proposed rules. It will be open for the public to attend, and I plan to allocate 15 minutes at the middle or end of the meeting if there are audience members who want to speak. The public comment period will start in June, and that will be the main opportunity for anyone who wants to comment on the rules more generally.

I'll be reaching out to you and others informally in the coming weeks, as I gather information for drafting the fiscal impact statement. Then, about a week before the meeting, I'll email a draft to you so you'll have a chance to review it before the meeting.

Feel free to email or call if you have comments or suggestions.

Thank you,

-Joe
