Hello Joe,

I agree that we want to encourage people to sign up for GovDelivery. You could have people sign up on the lap tops in the meeting. I've included a copy of our hearing sign-in sheet and hearing script (if you choose to use it).

Rulemaking doesn't have any other format for the comment cards. We're not required to have comment cards or "testimony forms" so I think that you can put them together any way you want.

Let me know if you need any help with this.

Emil

Hi Emil,

The public hearing box has some public hearing comment cards but I don't like the format much- they say 'Testimony Form' and give commenters the chance to ask for email or hard copy updates (I'd rather send them to GovDelivery unless they really don't have internet access.)

Is there another comment card format that you have? If not, I might make something up.

-Joe
