

RESOLUTION NO. 102

WHEREAS, there is an unnamed street which has a junction with U. S. Highway 101 immediately Northerly and Westerly of the 101 Highway Bridge across the Chetco River, and said unnamed street then continues in a generally Northerly direction to an intersection with the present North Bank Road; and

WHEREAS, the said North Bank Road continues from the intersection of said unnamed street in a generally Westerly and Northerly direction along Azalea State Park to intersection with Azalea Park Road; and

WHEREAS, there has been certain confusion and uncertainty with regard to the designation of these two streets,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Brookings, Oregon, in regular session this 9th day of June, 1964, that the present unnamed street extending from U. S. Highway 101 in a generally Northerly direction to the North Bank Road shall be and the same hereby is designated North Bank Road and shall be hereafter known by that name.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the portion of said North Bank Road extending from the intersection with the above mentioned formerly unnamed street to intersection with Azalea Park Road shall no longer be known as the North Bank Road, but the same shall be hereafter known as the Old County Road.

ADOPTED by the Council of the City of Brookings, Oregon, this 9th day of June, 1964.

SUBMITTED TO and approved by the Mayor of the City of Brookings, Oregon, this 9th day of June, 1964.

ATTEST:

Don Page Smith
City Recorder

Byron L. Bauman
Mayor