Memorandum

TO: Mayor, City Council
FROM: City Manager Tom Weldon
DATE: June 30, 2000

Issue: City's 50th Birthday

Background:

1. On July 10, 1951 voters approved incorporating this area as the City of Brookings.
2. July 10, 2000, will be the City of Brookings' 50th birthday.
3. It would be nice to have some planned community activities to celebrate this milestone.

Recommendation: Council direct staff to advertise for members of a Council appointed citizens committee to help plan, including financing, a 50th birthday party activities.

China issues 50 ways to celebrate birthday

Beijing puts out its official list of slogans, the only ones it wants uttered for the nation's 50th-birthday fete

By ERIK ECKHOLM
NEW YORK TIMES NEWS SERVICE

BEIJING — In case any of the 1.3 billion people in China are having trouble imagining what to chant or inscribe for the nation's 50th-birthday blowout on Oct. 1, the Communist Party on Tuesday issued a list of approved slogans.

Fifty of them, to be exact.

They are more than suggestions. They are the only messages allowed on posters, banners and the lips of celebrants as China marks the first half century of the People's Republic.

On this carefully scripted occasion, free thought — even in praise of the party, let alone to plea for, say, the repressed Falun Gong spiritual movement or the cause of Tibet — is definitely forbidden.

Judging from the list, published in the party newspaper People's Daily, the specially picked 500,000 people who will jam Tiananmen Square on the big day will need some rehearsing before they try any chants. The 50 slogans were crafted by the wordsmiths of the Propaganda Department to cover every current party theme. Terse or poetic they are not.

The list ranges from the bland ("Warmly celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China!") to the insipidly inspirational ("Unite as one, fear no difficulties, struggle hard, be persistent, dare to win!")

It includes anachronistic nods to the past: "Rely on the working class wholeheartedly!" — a relic of the Mao era coined long before the government began sloughing off redundant workers in state enterprises.

And it includes the truly contemporary, such as this sly mouthful adapted from the landmark party decision in 1997 to elevate the standing of private enterprise, known by the code phrase "diverse forms":

"Adhere to the basic economic system with public ownership dominant and diverse forms of ownership developing side by side, and 'to each according to his work' as the main distribution form and with other forms as well!"

Many slogans are left over from the post-1978 Deng Xiaoping era of economic opening and market reforms, a process still unfolding.

Not only is the primary slogan of recent years included — "Hold high the great banner of Deng Xiaoping Theory and put forward the cause of building socialism with Chinese characteristics into the 21st century!" — there also is Deng's own crucial if oblique call for shedding Maoist thought: "Emancipate the mind, seek truth from facts and firmly promote reform and opening up!"

In private meetings, paraders from various professions have been instructed on the particular slogans they should chant, sometimes (thankfully) abbreviated versions of those on the published list.

Thus, teachers and students are expected to shout: "Value knowledge!" and "Reinvigorate the nation with science and technology!"

Government workers, stressing the modern side of things, will shout "Strengthen the legal system!" and "Serve the people wholeheartedly!"

There is also, of course, the obligatory "Rally closely around the Party Central Committee with Comrade Jiang Zemin at the core and work hard with one heart, greet the new century with new achievements!"

Some of Jiang's own inspiring statements have their own entries, including "Stress theoretical study, political awareness and good conduct!" — the theme of the "three stresses" rectification campaign this summer inflicted on cadres in their workplaces.

There is no "Long Live Chairman Mao!" although his "thought" remains enshrined in a slogan along with those of Marx, Lenin and Deng.

The slogans of earlier anniversaries practically tell the story of the half century.

In 1950, the first anniversary, slogans included: "Liberate Taiwan!" "Liberate Tibet!" "Fight the American Imperialist Invasion of Korea!" "Long Live Chairman Mao!" and "Long Live the Leader of the World's People: Stalin!"

From 1955: "Resolutely purge all counterrevolutionaries!"

From 1959, shortly before the rupture with the Soviet Union: "Long live the unbridled friendship between the Chinese and Soviet people!" And, reflecting Mao's disastrous Great Leap Forward, there was, "Strive to complete and surpass the production responsibility of 12 million tons of steel!" and "Long live the people's communes!"

MEMO

TO: Tom Weldon, City Manager Tom

THROUGH: Ken Lewis, Police Chief KLL

FROM: Officer Barbara Palicki - Community Policing BP

DATE: June 29, 2000

ISSUE: FORMATION OF THE BROOKINGS HARBOR TRAFFIC SAFETY COMMITTEE AT COUNCIL MEETING ON MONDAY, JULY 10.

In response to your request during our meeting on Tuesday, June 20, I have attached a proposed resolution for use in the formation of the Brookings Harbor Traffic Safety Committee. I am requesting to be added to the agenda for the July 10 meeting to present this resolution for consideration and vote.

As a community we are already involved in all aspects of traffic safety, through engineering, education and enforcement. The Brookings Police Department and area agencies already work together in the area of traffic safety. By formalizing this effort into an official committee we will be able to access services and grants to provide equipment, signs, and educational materials to help in traffic safety issues in the south county area that we can't access now.

A traffic safety committee can also develop and coordinate safety programs, identify and recommend traffic improvement priorities to the city and county, foster public knowledge and acceptance for traffic law enforcement and engineering needs.

We will also be able to implement new and expand in-place traffic safety programs in the schools.

All proposed committee members have been contacted and have agreed to serve on this committee.

RECOMMENDATION: Authorize formation of this committee by passing Resolution No. 00-R-682.

Councilor Pepper moved, Councilor Johns seconded, and the Council voted unanimously to approve the Eagle Scout project for the building of a trellis over the bench facing the sundial in Stout Park, as presented by Boy Scout Kenneth Horn.

5. Council Liaisons

Councilor Johns reported about her recent meeting of the Pelican Bay Prison Advisory Council. She stated the prisoners had provided 256,250 hours of work from 1990 to March, 2000, resulting in over $1,850,000 savings to Crescent City/Del Norte County community. Johns advised after the Council meeting tonight she would be attending the 17C School District Board meeting.

Council Curry attended the Coos Curry Douglas (CCD) Economic Development Corporation meeting on June 13, 2000 in Gold Beach, of which a large portion was centered around their new office being opened in Harbor. Curry thanked the Port Commission, and Executive Director Crabtree for their support in making this happen. An open house is planned for sometime in July. Mayor Hagbom asked Crabtree, in the audience, to report on the progress of this project.

Councilor Johns moved, Councilor Kuhn seconded, and the Council voted unanimously to approve the liaison appointments as suggested by Mayor Hagbom.

- C. Unscheduled
There were no appearances.

VIII. STAFF REPORTS

A. Finance Department

1. Second 1999/2000 Supplemental Budget

In the absence of Finance Director Gail Hedding, City Manager Tom Weldon discussed the need for a second 1999/2000 Supplemental Budget, and reminded the Council these were unforeseen expenditures and revenues when the budget was put together 14 months ago. Those unexpected occurrences were in two general fund departments and the street fund: the Police Department's personal services budget involving the second SRO which was funded by 17C School District, and overtime costs due to workload requirements from flooding, overlay, and other work projects. Under Legislative and Administrative personal services, it was necessary to increase the personal services budget, due to an error in preparing the 1999/2000 budget. There is sufficient unanticipated carryover to cover the increased line item expenses. After Hagbom requested some clarifications, Weldon advised the City was not spending additional monies but balancing the line items. Weldon recommended approval of the resolution.

Councilor Pepper moved, Councilor Curry seconded, and the Council voted unanimously to approve Resolution No. 00-R-680, in the matter of a resolution adopting a supplemental budget for the 1999/2000 Fiscal Year.

2. Janitorial service for City Hall Offices

City Manager Weldon explained the bid process and advised only two proposals were received, both of which were higher than the budget allowed. Finance Director Hedding through Weldon asked to offer the low bidder, Paul's Floor Maintenance the contract for one month in the amount of $975, and negotiate a contract at the end of the probationary period, returning to the Council for approval. Discussion ensued.

Councilor Johns moved, Councilor Curry seconded, and the Council voted unanimously to approve the services of Paul's Floor Maintenance at $975, for the month of July and at that time to return to the Council for approval to enter into a contract with Paul's Floor Maintenance.

B. City Manager

1. Hiring a new City Manager

Mayor Hagbom stated this would be addressed later in the agenda under resolutions.

2. Changing Annual Volunteer Dinner

City Manager Weldon recommended changing the annual volunteer dinner event to a picnic held at Azalea Park stage August 26, 2000, rather than in January of 2001. Weldon also suggested the picnic include not only the City volunteers but their immediate families and the City staff and immediate families. He presented projections based upon assumptions of attendance and compared it to the expenses of last year's dinner at the Elks Lodge and found considerable savings. Weldon stated while this would save money it will still be a nice, appreciated event. Presented with the possible change, Weldon found volunteers, Department Heads, and staff saying, "it sounds fun, let's try it!" He recommended a motion to change the event, with staff beginning work on the picnic immediately. Council concurred on change idea.

Port Commissioner Ken Byrtus offered his large commercial Bar-B-Q for the event. Weldon said they already had one but they could talk about his, should the proposal be approved. Virginia Byrtus asked for confirmation the date in mind would not be in conflict with the annual art festival, and was told it would not.

Councilor Pepper moved, Councilor Johns seconded, and the Council voted unanimously to direct staff to plan a volunteer and staff picnic for August 26, 2000, at Azalea Park, reserving the high school cafeteria and gym in case of inclement weather.

3. Council/Community Relations expenditures

Weldon provided explanation of requests for expenditures under the Council/Community Relations budget line item for next year. There was minimal discussion and some representatives from the organizations requesting funds were present for questions.

Councilor Pepper moved, Councilor Johns seconded, and the Council voted unanimously to reserve $2,614, for the annual volunteer recognition event; and authorize the following expenditures:

Helpline of the South Coast - $480.00

Retired & Senior Volunteer Program - $750.00

Klamath Management Zone Fisheries Coalition - $500.00

Port of Brookings-Harbor Kite Festival - $380.40

Vietnam Veterans: 4th of July Fireworks - $750.00; leaving a balance of $3,350.60, remaining in the line item for future unforeseen expenses.

4. Tourism promotion agreement with Chamber of Commerce
City Manager Weldon provided background on the tourism promotion agreement with the Chamber, which has been in effect since August 10, 1993, and the recent discussion of reviewing agreements/contracts regularly so as to be changed if and when appropriate. Weldon recommended review of the agreement and the Transient Room Tax Ordinance by a three person committee. There was no discussion.

Councilor Johns moved, Councilor Kuhn seconded, and the Council voted unanimously to appoint Mayor Hagbom, Councilor Pepper, and City Manager Tom Weldon to review the tourism promotion agreement with Brookings-Harbor Chamber of Commerce and the Transient Room Tax ordinance, returning to the Council with recommendations.

City Manager Weldon explained, if this resolution was approved, it would be faxed to League of Oregon Cities Director Dick Townsend tomorrow. Weldon suggested a special meeting during the regular work day rather than a late evening meeting for interviews. He continued by recommending the approval of resolution with timeline dates changed and having Mayor Hagbom go over these changes with Director Townsend tomorrow. If agreeable to these changes, the Mayor would sign the resolution.
