

RESOLUTION NO. LIX

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF WORLD LAW DAY.

WHEREAS, all public and private organizations have been called upon to work together in the interest of world peace and international understanding during this International Cooperation Year as proclaimed by the United Nations, and

WHEREAS, we join with our fellow men throughout the world to express our profound concern for the hopes and aspirations of all free men everywhere, and

WHEREAS, the present state of world affairs makes it especially fitting that we re-affirm our faith in the rule of law and in the supremacy of government by laws rather than men, and

WHEREAS, we recognize that the principle of representative government with its ideals of equal justice, equal opportunity and the protection of the rights of all citizens is based upon the existence of law administered by independent courts, and

WHEREAS, mankind's most practical hope for peace lies in the willingness of all men to work together to build an orderly world community under the rule of law,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Common Council for the City of Canby, Oregon, collectively and individually proclaims our support of World Law Day on September 13, 1965, and we enjoin all men of goodwill to observe this occasion to demonstrate the importance of the law in mankind's quest for world peace by appropriate public observances.
