BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the rules and regulations of Zion Memorial Park, formerly Zion Cemetery, adopted January 10, 1938, and revised July, 1949, are hereby restated as follows:

A. Raised stones or monument markers will be allowed only in those sections of the cemetery which now contain raised stones or monument markers and which areas are defined as all areas in the "old section" and Blocks N, O, S, T and U in the new section of the old cemetery.

B. Except in those areas now containing raised stones or markers as defined in the foregoing paragraph A, monuments or markers in other areas of the cemetery must be flat, bronze or quarry granite of modern design. Each grave may be marked with a flat bronze marker or with a polished quarry granite marker, and such markers must be 12" X 24" for adults and 10" X 20" for children and 3" to 6" thick and set level with the ground; letters on bronze markers may be raised but letters on granite markers must be sunk deep; and no foot stone shall be permitted.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all prior price schedules and rules and regulations of the Zion Memorial Park which are different than or contrary to the provisions of this Resolution are now changed and superseded by the provisions of this Resolution.

Adopted by the Canby City Council this ____ day of February, 1977.
