

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE DUMPING OF RUBBISH ON PRIVATE LAND OR PUBLIC WAY, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF TROUTDALE:

Section 1. Any person who intentionally or negligently throws, dumps, places, deposits or drains, or causes or permits to be drained upon the land of another, without permission of the owner, or upon any public road, highway, street, alley or any easement used by the public for public travel, referred to later in this section as a public way, any cans, glass, nails, tacks, broken dishes or crockery, carcass of any dead animal, old clothing, old automobile tires, old automobile parts, boards, metal, or any sort of rubbish, trash, mud, dirt, debris, or refuse, or any sewage or the drainage from any cesspool or septic tank, or any substance which would mar the appearance, create a stench or detract from the cleanliness or safety of such public way, or would be likely to injure any animal, vehicle or person traveling upon such public way, shall be punished upon conviction by a fine not to exceed $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 30 days or both.

Section 2. Inasmuch as this Ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, peace and safety of the people of the City of Troutdale, in the judgment of the Common Council, now, therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this Ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage by the Common Council of the City of Troutdale, and its signing by the Mayor.

Passed by the Common Council of the City of Troutdale, this 11th day of January, 1972.
