

CITY OF BROOKINGS

Public Arts Committee - March 17, 2014

Members present: Committee Chair Lea Ray, Scott Clapson, Jackie Farr, Judy May-Lopez, Destiny Schwartz

Also present: Parks/Tech Services Supervisor Tony Baron

Meeting called to order at 11:07 by Chair Ray. Motion made by Clapson and seconded by Lea to approve the minutes of the February 24 meeting. Motion carried.

Old Business

Murals and Signs: Need to make certain that all mural possibilities have completed mural applications

- Salon Dolce: Schwartz estimates $300 cost. Baron will review wall/sign construction and advise Ray.
- Kid Zone: May-Lopez met with Milt Gowman (property owner), he is agreeable to a mural possibility. Ray to meet with Theresa (current lessee) of Kid Zone (with May-Lopez if possible) and report in April.
- Food Bank: Clapson will contact Jen ? again
- Fleet Street: Clapson will contact Lovell brothers.
- Pool: Farr reported she talked with Pryce re: separating this into phases, with Phase 1 being the starfish (possible funds raised for the pool). She estimated 40 starfish, various sizes and prices
 - Baron would like to see the design and will talk with Milliman on this project.
 - Farr: meet with May-Lopez to present details (photos, design, concept) at April meeting

Baron reported they are awaiting a Flora Pacific bid for landscaping the property at the southern edge of town

Brookings WELCOME sign: Discussion-Baron reported on the sign challenges (vandalism, etc.) and that they are looking at draught resistant plants; he authorized weed pulling at the site. Clapson will get a work party together to beautify the sign. All committee members will work on beautifying the sign.

- Farr will report on the other 'welcome' sign north of town.
- Baron noted there is a welcome sign at the south end of town.

Baron reported the number of PAC board members was set at five by the city council. More research would be needed to possibly increase this number.

NEA Grant: May-Lopez reported she reviewed info and will forward to committee members.

Food is Free – will discuss at upcoming meeting

New Business

Clapson reported he met with Milliman this week re: a youth member being an ex-officio member of city council and one with PAC.

Clapson reported possibly establishing a relationship and working with Washed Ashore/Bandon.

PAC Meeting Dates: Next meeting April 7th and 21st, 11am.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Lea Ray, Committee Chair (approved at April 7, 2014 meeting)
