AGENDA

Library Board Meeting

May 5, 1981

7:30 P.M.

Library Meeting Room

1. Monthly circulation report(s)
2. Monthly budget report(s)
3. Staff.
 - a. Librarian Dick Wagner was gone April 7-14 on personal business.
 - b. Asst. Librarian Sheila Dooley was gone April 1-May 2 on vacation.
 - c. CETA employee Margaret Hoggatt left for personal reasons.
 - d. Youth Service Employment funded employee Mary Lee Kimball left for personal reasons.
4. Programs.
 - a. Dorothy Skipper reports that the Friday morning story hour for preschoolers has been well received. Average attendance is 16-25.
 - b. Dorothy will promote Vern Duncan's summer reading program this summer.
5. Judy Cochrane of Treaty Oak has asked if the Library can waive the $9.00 annual non-resident charge for Treaty Oak instructors who live outside the county. She said she would submit a written request to Anne Turner. Considering the pressure the City is putting on all departments to increase all fees, licenses, fine, etc. I would recommend against any change at this time.
6. 1981-82 Budget.

City has tentatively approved its share; county has tentatively approved its share conditional upon approval of the May 19 levy.
7. Note. For the 5th straight month there has been an increase in circulation, the rate running from approximately 3.5% to 16.5%
