The Dalles, Oregon 97058

Minutes Library Board Meeting
January 6, 1970

7:40 P.M.

Present were Chairman Anne Turner, Margaret Smith, Marjorie Wolfe, and Jacquelyn Gutersohn.

1. Meg Smith moved that the minutes of the January meeting be accepted as submitted. Unanimously approved.
2. Librarian reported on activities at the library during the month. Asst. Librarian Beadie Taylor has been out over a week with a broken ankle.
3. Dick Wagner reported that he had approached G.P. and Tompkins about the possibility of getting staffing for the library. They said to check back later in the spring when their funding was settled.
4. Dick Wagner reported that the library had a serious problem with lost books and everything needed to be done to get overdue materials returned. It was suggested that the library have an amnesty day when overdue could be returned without fines or questions. J. Gutersohn moved that the library have an amnesty day on February 13th and that the librarian publicize both the amnesty and the seriousness of the problem. Meg Smith seconded. Approved unanimously.

Meeting adjourned 9:20
