You bet. I had one other thought overnight. The description could more clearly describe why this area qualifies for the modified maintenance plan. I don't recall that it really explained that. My comments are working on the assumption that the area qualifies. And that the actual plan follows the rules. I'm relying on your analysis and conclusions on that. Let me know if you feel any need for me to review anything else related to this.

Andrea: My comments and proposed edits are attached. Overall, this looked pretty good to me. I didn't have too much to add here. I only spent about 50 minutes looking at this. Unless I hear otherwise, I will just bill my time to a miscellaneous air quality matter number.
