

CANBY CITY COUNCIL

SPECIAL MEETING

AUGUST 29, 1984

Mayor Michael L. Gabrion presiding. Councilmembers present: Gene Clift, Gary Sowles, Bill Pulver, Scott Taylor and Nancy Kopelk. Councilman David Anderson was absent.

Also present: Acting City Administrator Bud Atwood, City Attorney John Kelley, Deputy Treasurer Virginia Graham, Chief of Police Jerry Giger, Librarian Beth Saul, Harry Lee Kwai, Lee Funrue, John Falkenstein, Dorothy Knight, Wade Bettis, Betsy Ross, Dorothy McCormick, James Kreigshauser, Jean Warren, and Art Ellickson.

Mayor Gabrion called the sepcial session to order at 7:03 p.m.

Roll call of Council showed a quorum present.

Mayor Gabrion asked if there was anything to come before the Council before they adjourned into a workshop session.

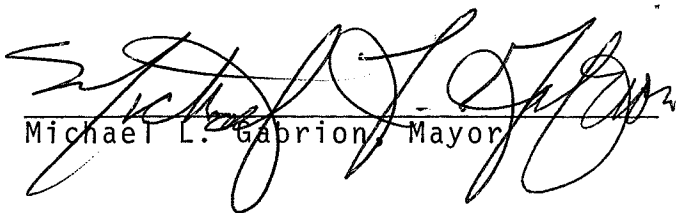

Acting City Administrator Atwood reviewed his memo to the Council asking for a budget meeting to be set up for the purpose of discussing a supplemental budget for the 1984-85 budget. There are several issues that need attention. The Senior Center will need another $30,000, book codification will need $10,000 and $5,000 for a word processing system.

Councilman Taylor moved to proceed with the process to hold a Budget Meeting on September 13, 1984 for the purpose of discussing and adopting a supplemental budget and holding a Public Hearing, Councilwoman Kopelk seconded. Motion passed 5-0.

Administrator Atwood asked if the Council would discuss intent on the Oliver property in the workshop. Mayor Gabrion agreed to this.

Mayor Gabrion recessed into the workshop at 7:21 p.m.

Mayor Gabrion reconvened and immediately adjourned the Special Meeting at 9:58 p.m.

Michael L. Gabrion, Mayor

Virginia Graham, Deputy Treasurer

August 29, 1984