

LIBRARY BOARD MEETING - NOVEMBER 5, 1968

8:00 P.M.

Those present were Dr. Rice, Rev. Willming, Helen Marks, Frances Dick, Meg Smith.

LIBRARIAN REPORTS

Mrs. Marks reported: 20 large print books have been ordered from England. Large print Readers' Digest not ordered yet.

GLEN HOWELL MEMORIAL GIFT OF BOOKS

Rev. Willming told of offer of Mental Health Association to use $200.00 in a memorial fund for Glen Howell for books. The offer was accepted and Rev. Willming to consult with association on books.

STATE EVALUATION

State Library has not set date for evaluation. Mrs. Marks to write again about this.

BOOK DONATIONS

Art group has donated 2 more books. A "Bridge" group has offered to contribute books.

BOOKPLATES AND NEW FICTION

Bookplates for dedications books to be checked on by Mrs. Marks.

A list of new fiction to be made up by Mrs. Marks.

CHILDREN'S STORY HOUR

Mrs. Marks reported the Junior High Drama Department has started story hours in the Children's Department.

MUSIC CENTER

Mrs. Marks reported the framework for the music center is installed. The top screen was discussed. Dr. Rice to check with Mr. Cesar on whether it had been ordered and not delivered or cancelled. He also was to check on the listening posts with Mr. Yescney and the list records.

Mrs. Marks reported that 1) Difficulty with county schools had been solved, 2) Out of town patrons are charged $1.00 per year. Newcomers to town are charged $1.00 for 6 months and it is refunded at the end of that time.

ACCOUNTS PAYABLE

Bills were presented, discussed and signed.

GROUNDS AND EQUIPMENT

Janitor, cleaning, and weeding problems discussed. Mrs. Marks to check and report on new cleaning equipment needed.

Mrs. Smith presented report on benches and signs for library--both to be continued.

Mrs. Dick presented report on copy machines. She is to contact A. B. Smith Company for more details.

PERIODICALS

Mrs. Marks to order replacements for ones that subscriptions are running out.

Meeting dismissed at 10:30 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Meg Smith, Secretary