This Agreement, made this 29 day of Dec, 1922, between the City of Lebanon, Oregon, and the Lebanon Mutual Telephone Company:

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the said City of Lebanon has established a fire department signal service and desires to place a switch, in connection with and forming a part of said system, in the exchange of the said Telephone Company, and,

WHEREAS, the City of Lebanon wishes to operate the said fire department signal system from the exchange of the said Telephone Company with a view to economy of operation,

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of one dollar ($1.00) paid by each of the parties one to the other, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the respective parties do mutually covenant and agree with each other as follows:

The said Telephone Company agrees to allow the said City of Lebanon to install a switch in its exchange for use in connection with the said fire department signal system.

The said switch shall be installed and maintained in the said exchange entirely at the expense of Said City of Lebanon and to that end the properly accredited employees of said City shall, at any time, have access to this equipment for the purpose of inspection and repairing same.

The said Telephone Company agrees to act, through its operators and employees, as the agent of the said City, voluntarily and without charge, in the operation of said switch and fire alarm system, it being understood that the said fire alarm system and its operation are and continue to be, wholly, instrumentalities and functions of the said City.

The City of Lebanon, aforesaid, agrees to assume all liability for any default or neglect on the part of the employees of the said Telephone Company in the performance of any act done hereunder and further undertakes and agrees to indemnify and save harmless the said Telephone Company of and from any and all claims of whatsoever kind and nature which may be made against it arising out of or in any way connected with the operation of the said switch and fire alarm signal service.

This agreement shall be binding upon the successors or assigns of the parties hereto.

This agreement shall become effective and remain in force simultaneously with Ordinance Number 297 granted by the said City of Lebanon to the said Lebanon Mutual Telephone Company on the 5 day of Dec, 1922, and shall lapse and become void simultaneously with said Ordinance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the respective parties have hereto caused their corporate names to be signed and corporate seals to be affixed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized, all on the day and year first above written.
