ORDINANCE NO. 59.

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting minors from entering a saloon at any time, and prohibiting any person from entering a saloon on the Sabbath, within the City of Lebanon, Linn County, Oregon; and providing for the punishment of any violation hereof, and providing for the protection of persons giving testimony on the trial of any case brought hereunder.

THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF LEBANON DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Any minor or any woman or any Indian, who shall hereafter enter or be found in any place where spirituous, malt or vinous liquor or liquors are kept for sale, at any time during the day or night, shall, upon conviction thereof before the Recorder's Court, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment in the City Jail not less than five days nor more than twelve days, or by both said fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Recorder of the City of Lebanon.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall enter, at any time during the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, whether in the day time or the night time, any place where spirituous, malt or vinous liquor or liquors are kept for sale, shall, upon conviction thereof before the Recorder's Court, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment in the City Jail not less than five days, nor more than twelve days, or by both said fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Recorder of the City of Lebanon.

SEC. 3. This ordinance shall not be construed to prevent the proprietor of any saloon, or an actual employe thereof from entering the saloon of which he is the proprietor or employe of the proprietor for any legitimate purpose connected with the proper management of said saloon at any time.

SEC. 4. The testimony of any witness giving evidence for the City in the prosecution of any case brought under this Ordinance shall not be used against the witness in any prosecution of said witness for a violation of this Ordinance; and no person, other than the defendant in his own case, shall be excused from testifying in any prosecution under this Ordinance.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to repeal or amend any Ordinance or part thereof of the City of Lebanon, aforesaid, concerning offenses or disorderly conduct or concerning licensing, taxing, regulating or restraining the sale or disposal of spirituous, malt or vinous liquor or liquors.

SEC. 6. This Ordinance shall be and remain in full force and effect from, on and after its approval by the Mayor.

Passed the Council this 5th day of April, 1904.

Approved by the Mayor this 6th day of April, 1904.

B. BURTENSHAW,
 Mayor of the City of Lebanon.
