Neil Bain of Portland, president of the Dads' club, will preside over the business meeting at 10 o'clock and will preside at the annual banquet, where Mayor Earl C. Riley of Portland, Oregon State graduate, will be the principal speaker. Reservations for the banquet are being made through sons and daughters at the college.

Police officers have been doing this in the children, again make according to Motor association. What we seek is the reign of law, based upon the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind.—Woodrow Wilson.

Radio Shorthand Training Starts
OREGON STATE COLLEGE—Change of the hour for the annual KOAC radio shorthand contest from forenoon to evening will provide an opportunity for many employed stenographers throughout the state to brush up on their shorthand by having their transcriptions checked and graded without cost, says H. T. Vance, head of the secretarial science department here. Prior to the change to the morning hour many stenographers made use of the program for this purpose even though they did not participate in the contest, which is confined to high school students. The broadcast will be weekly from now to April at 7:30 o'clock each Friday night.

JOHN HENRY MYLER

Services were held from the Howe Funeral home last Friday for John Henry Myler, 80, Lebanon, who died Oct. 1 at the Sacred Heart hospital, Eugene, where he had been admitted two days before.

He was born May 27, 1861, at Osceola, Iowa, and came to Lebanon in 1910, settling on a farm south of the city. His wife, Matilda Olive Bland, whom he married 15 years ago, died in February, 1940.

He is survived by two sons, J. E. Myler, Sweet Home, and Geo. Myler, Lebanon, route two; one daughter, Mrs. May Lent, Canby, and 11 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Rev. D. Lester Fields officiated.

Put the fire out before it starts.

Access roads: Roads connecting existing highways with defense training centers, plants engaged in defense production and sources of raw materials essential to such production.

Aviation flight strips: Proposed temporary fields located along important highways for the landing and take-off of planes.

Off-street parking facilities: Parking centers located adjacent to streets and highways carrying heavy traffic.

To Be Dedicated Sunday
