City of The Dalles
Proclamation
Sexual Assault Action Month

Whereas: Sexual Violence affects every person in the Columbia River Gorge; and

Whereas: We believe survivors; and

Whereas: Now, more than ever, we are being reminded that we are capable of change; and

Whereas: Every individual and community in North Central Oregon has a role to play in moving forward and promoting health and safety for all people by not tolerating violence, by challenging a culture of systemic oppression, by promoting accountability, and by participating in the efforts to end violence and abuse; and

Whereas: Our efforts are built on the foundations of work by dedicated activists, advocates, preventionists, responders and community leaders who have been advancing justice and equity for decades; and

Whereas: By taking action where you work, play, learn, worship, and live, change is possible and sexual violence is preventable when we are all working to end systemic oppression, the root cause of all forms of violence and abuse.

Now, Therefore: I, Richard A. Mays, Mayor of The City of The Dalles, hereby proclaim April 2021 to be Sexual Assault Action Month in The Dalles and encourage all community members to join in this observance.
