Deed recites, that the hereinafter described premises was assessed by the assessor of the City of Newberg, Oregon on May 2, 1893, to Elizabeth Wright and the taxes thereon levied by the Common Council of said City at its meeting held May 15, 1893. And after due proceedings said Tax on said real property was returned unpaid and the Treasurer of said City was unable to collect the same without sale of said real property and thereafter a Warrant was issued and attached to said assessment by order of the Common Council of said City directed and delivered to the Marshal aforesaid commanding him to collect said delinquent tax by levy and sale of the property hereinafter described, if sufficient personal property could not be found. That the hereinafter described real property was by said Marshal on Dec. 9, 1893 in front of the City Council Room door in the said City in accordance with law after due notice offered for sale at public auction at which said Auction S.M.Calkins was the bidder who was willing to take the smallest portion or interest in said real property and pay the tax costs and charges due thereon, which amount to $6.70; that said least or smallest portion is the tract hereinafter described, which was struck off to said S.M.Calkins who paid the amount of said taxes, costs and charges and became the purchaser of said land.

Therefore in consideration of the sum of $6.70 etc. do grant, bargain sell and convey and confirm the following described real property, to-wit:

Beginning at the South East corner of the D.D.Deskins D.L.C.; running thence West along the South boundary of said D.L.C. 13.67 chains; thence North 39 links to center of Dayton and Portland Road; thence East by North along the center of said Dayton and Portland Road to within 6 rods of the East line of said D.L.C.; thence South to the place of beginning containing 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres.
