Special meeting to take action on draft criteria and processes for hiring a permanent DEQ director

The Oregon Environmental Quality Commission will meet in Portland and via telephone conference call on Wednesday, April 6, 2016.

The meeting will convene at 2 p.m. and is expected to end by 4 p.m. The meeting is at the DEQ headquarters, 811 SW 6th Avenue, in room EQC-A on the 10th floor, in downtown Portland.

The purpose of the meeting is to review and take action on draft hiring standards, criteria and procedures for the recruitment of a permanent director for DEQ. Legal counsel, DEQ staff and other state agency representatives may present information about the commission's options for action, including information about other recent director-level recruitments.

The commission intends to solicit formal public comment on the proposed draft hiring standards, criteria and recruitment procedures as part of its next regular meeting, April 20-21. The agenda, currently, under development, will include information about specific opportunities for comment and input regarding the DEQ director position.

There is no public comment opportunity scheduled as part of the April 6, 2016, special meeting.

The agenda for the April 20-21, 2016, regular meeting will be posted the week of April 4, on the EQC meetings webpage:
