Hi Paula,

Sorry I just left you a belated voicemail but long story short if you don't have the excel version with that info saved then don't worry about re-entering—we can just include the main categories in our master list and put a note to see the pdf for details.

I forgot to mention I will be out tomorrow so if you have any questions you can reach out to Kristen!

Cheers,
Leela

Hi Paula,

Looks like you're on the right track—I'm assuming you're planning to list the individual contractor names and dates under each category? That works just fine, or if you already have that list elsewhere you can always put "see attached" in the description and then attach the detail list separate, but whatever is simplest for you.

Hope that helps!

Hello,

Hope to find you well!

I have several Asbestos files that are past the destruction date I would like to get rid of them this New Year for those following behind me in the future. Can I trouble you to be sure I am doing it right if I were send you what I did. Also, for the life of me I am unable to find where Records are for the form. I found it once, but the DEQ Records Destruction Authorization Form is not in my sites anymore. Help me!

Paula

Thanks Paula, I approve. Would you mind sending a copy of the excel version as well? That's the one Kristen uses to update the master spreadsheet.

Thanks!
