DEQ seeks comments on proposed cleanup action for the Permapost Products wood-treating facility in Hillsboro

The Oregon Department of Environmental Quality seeks comments on its proposed cleanup plan to address arsenic, dioxin, and pentachlorophenol (PCP) contamination at and in the vicinity of the Permapost Products wood-treating site at 4205 SE Witch Hazel Rd. in Hillsboro. Contamination is present in the soil and groundwater on and off the property. The cleanup work will ensure long-term protection of public health and the environment.

For more information: To view project documents and information on how to comment on this proposed action by Oct. 1, 2025, see the public notice at <https://ordeq.org/publicnotices>
