PRESS RELEASE

DATE: May 8, 2026

TOPIC: Fireworks Use Prohibited Within The Dalles City Limits

CONTACT: Amie Ell, Public Information Officer

FOR RELEASE: Immediate

The Dalles, Oregon – The City of The Dalles has declared a state of emergency under Ordinance No. 25-1412 following Wasco County’s order banning fireworks due to fire-related safety concerns. As a result, the use of all fireworks is now prohibited within City limits.

This prohibition includes lighting, igniting, or setting off any type of firework. The sale and possession of fireworks are not restricted under this order.

The ban does not apply to commercial fireworks displays that are approved by local or state government, including the State Fire Marshal.
