

RESOLUTION NO. 175

A RESOLUTION DECLARING AN INTENT TO OFFER NON-FEE LIBRARY SERVICE TO ALL RESIDENTS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF COOPERATIVE LIBRARY SERVICES, AND TO ACCEPT AT LEAST $6,547.00 ON AN ANNUAL BASIS AS RAISED BY A COUNTYWIDE THREE YEAR SERIAL LEVY AS COMPENSATION FOR OFFERING SUCH LIBRARY SERVICE.

WHEREAS, the need to supply non-fee direct library service to the 125,000 county residents has been established; and

WHEREAS, the Cooperative Library Service intends to offer a three-year serial levy for approval of the voters of Washington County on the next Primary Election Date; and

WHEREAS, the amount of at least $6,547 has been specified as compensation to be paid on an annual basis to the library budget of the City library to serve county residents; and

WHEREAS, the City Librarian, City Library Board and City Administrator have determined this amount adequate to offer such service with no impairment either in level or quality of service offered residents of Sherwood; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the City of Sherwood will receive substantial improvements in library service through the other services to be offered to all county residents, both those now served and those non-served, by the Cooperative Library Service; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SHERWOOD, OREGON:

Section 1. The Council hereby declares its intent to offer all residents of Washington County non-fee access to the City library effective upon passage of the three year serial levy funding county-wide compensation for such service.

Section 2. The persons benefitted will be all citizens of the City of Sherwood and those 125,000 persons now without direct library service.
