Resolution No. 2001-985

A RESOLUTION PROHIBITING CITY COUNCILORS FROM COMMENTING ON CURRENT OR FORMER CITY EMPLOYEES

WHEREAS, City Councilors have been asked on occasion to comment regarding current or former city employees; and

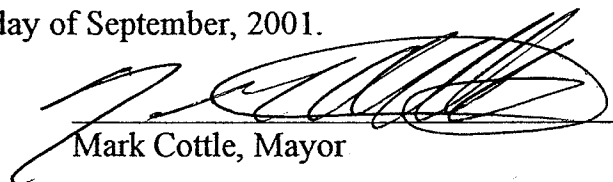

WHEREAS, to protect the City from potential liability, it is appropriate to refrain from making comments in such a situation; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate to refer such request for information to the Human Resources Department for response;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY RESOLVES AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. City Councilors are prohibited from making any comment in response to formal questions from prospective employers regarding current or former city employees except to refer the request to the City's Human Resources Department.

Duly passed by the City Council this 25th day of September, 2001.

Mark Cottle, Mayor
