

PROCLAMATION

HONORING THE PUBLIC SERVICE OF LEE DAVID WEISLOGEL

WHEREAS, today we honor Lee David Weislogel, husband of 64 years to Elsa Jane, a father, a grandfather and a great-grandfather, a veteran, and a dedicated public servant; and

WHEREAS, Lee was born on October 2, 1937 in Gary, Indiana and peacefully passed away on July 7, 2023; and

WHEREAS, In his “retirement” years, Lee generously gave his time and talents to enrich the Sherwood community as an elected official and held the following positions with the City of Sherwood; Interim City Manager, City Engineer, Public Works Director and Project and Emergency Management Coordinator; and

WHEREAS, Lee volunteered countless hours to many Sherwood organizations, including the Sherwood Charter School, Sherwood Main Street Program, and the Sherwood Historical Society; and

WHEREAS, Lee was dedicated to his faith and gave richly of his time and resources to Christian youth groups and mission work, and served as an elder, counselor, and Chair at Good Samaritan Ministries and Sherwood Community Friends Church; and

WHEREAS, We, the community of Sherwood, all owe Lee a debt of gratitude; Lee’s contributions to our community over the years are a primary reason we all enjoy a wonderful place to live today; and

WHEREAS, The City of Sherwood and the Sherwood community wish to honor and celebrate the memory, public service and life of Lee David Weislogel and hereby express our deepest gratitude for his dedication and service and extend our sincerest sympathy in his passing.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that I Tim Rosener, Mayor of the City of Sherwood, do hereby recognize the life and public service of Lee David Weislogel.

Dated: 1st day of August, 2023.

Tim Rosener, Mayor